

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

HOSANNA!

— MARK 11:9 —

March 24, 2024

Rev. Artur Sowa, Pastor

March 24, 2024

The St. Francis of Assisi Community is a welcoming Christian family.

We believe in Jesus Christ and are guided by the Holy Spirit and the example of St. Francis.

We gather to celebrate, to grow in the knowledge of our faith rooted in the Catholic tradition, and to recognize our responsibility to reach out to the world.

Holy Week

We are here! We've come through our Lenten journey and have reached the Passiontide. This is a very sacred liturgy and week – HOLY WEEK, filled with many graces and this Palm Sunday marks the beginning of it. For Christians, this is the holiest week of the liturgical year because the events associated with the final week of Jesus' earthly life form the basis of our Christian identity and faith. In the suffering, death, and resurrection of Christ, we find the mystery of our salvation made manifest to the world. Let us participate faithfully in those grand liturgies.

Palm Sunday/Notes on the Scripture

Today, as we proclaim the great story of Jesus' suffering and death, we cannot help but feel stunned and maybe even overwhelmed when we understand that he underwent these torments for you and for me. Jesus was not just a victim of circumstances. He was not in the wrong place at the wrong time. Rather he accepted the torturous death on the cross out of love for us, to take on himself the punishment we all deserved for our sins.

Like any great story, the story of Jesus' suffering and death is filled with characters with whom we can both sympathize and identify. The Gospels leave us wondering what happened to the characters we have read about. Did his encounter with Jesus change Simon of Cyrene? Did he eventually become a follower of Jesus and the apostles? How about Veronica? Did she walk through Jerusalem showing everyone the veil with the image of Jesus' face on it? Did others come to believe because of her compassionate act?

We can never know the answer. However, we can and should ask ourselves the same questions. What are we doing with the freedom we have through Jesus' death? Are we making use of the power unleashed by his passion to stop sinning? Are we imitating Christ's love for us by loving our neighbor as well? Has our encounter with Jesus through this proclamation of his passion and death changed us?

These are questions to reflect upon as we join the story of our lives to the Greatest Story Ever Told. These are the questions to ask ourselves as we enter into this Holy Week.

Reconciliation

Traditionally, one of those liturgies of Holy Week is our Reconciliation Service. I invite you this Monday, March 25th at 7:30pm to join us to celebrate God's love and forgiveness. This is a great way to enter into this Holy Week.

Pew Project Update

It has been a while since I shared with you any updates. We are working with the new vendor and our pews are being made. They will be ready mid March, however after consulting with our staff, we decided that the installation will take place right after Easter (first part of April). There are a lot of moving pieces and we don't want to interrupt the season of Lent, Holy Week or Easter. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

St. Peregrine is the patron saint for persons suffering from illnesses of all types in particular cancer. Saint Peregrine was healed of a cancerous ulcer on his leg which was considered beyond saving.

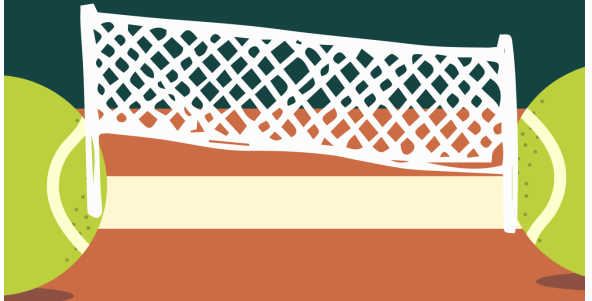

The fame of this event in 1325 spread rapidly around the western Church. Christians, and especially the sick, began to invoke his name and seek his intercession for the relief of their suffering and even for a cure from sickness.

The canonization of St. Peregrine in 1726 increased people's devotion to him which spread to the universal Church.

On Monday, April 15 at 7:00 pm in the church, St. Francis of Assisi will begin offering a novena to St. Peregrine for those suffering from cancer and/or other illnesses. We will meet for 9 Mondays skipping Memorial Day on May 27th.
